Earl Taylor to Present Concert

Humming a hymn is just as satisfying as singing for tenor Earl Taylor. "There's something about what it makes you feel like when you allow your soul to be expressed in music," he said.

The retired Southern University professor and former longtime member of the musical staff at Mount Zion Baptist Church of Baton Rouge will present a concert here June 29 at 6:00 p.m.

Taylor will be accompanied by Benji Harlan, professor at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Louisiana College

Taylor has performed for the Baton Rouge Symphony Chorus as well as across the country. Taylor believes the sacred hymns are a vital part of the worship experience.

"Removing the hymns from church is like removing prayer," said Taylor. "They're drawn from Scripture. They're drawn from experiences that are personal in nature, and they are written to express worshipful desires of the parishioners. Without music in worship, there's a lot that is missing."

Invite your friends to hear Earl Taylor and Benji Harlan on June 29 at 6:00 p.m.

From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church. We trust the worship service will inspire and encourage you, but most of all lead you to worship our Heavenly Father. If you are our guest, please take a moment before the service begins to complete the guest registration found in this bulletin. Tear at the dotted line when complete and bring this little slip with you to our Information Center. We have volunteers there waiting to meet you and give you a small gift.

We will be continuing our study of 2 Timothy this morning. Today, we find in 2 Timothy 3 a warning that is nearly 2,000 years old, but is as current as this morning's newspaper.

As we announced verbally last week, Noble Mosby is leaving our staff to accept a position at FBC, Jonesboro, GA. Noble has been a blessing to our ministry. We will certainly miss him. Many of you will want the opportunity to say a word of blessing and farewell. We are planning a reception for this purpose at the end of our evening worship next Sunday night.

We are in the midst of summer camps. Our Senior High students have returned from M-Fuge, but tomorrow our Middle School students head off to X-Fuge. Please pray for these students in Houston, TX. In addition, some of our boys are headed this week to RA Camp. Pray for safe trips and for awesome spiritual encounters.

Steve

Television Ministry

Our television ministry helps share the Gospel through broadcast and internet distribution. During the summer we will offer training for camera operators and other positions during both the 9:45 and 11:11 a.m. services. If you would like to serve in this ministry, or for more details, please contact Dennis Clark at 593-3744 or dennis.clark@fbclaf.org.
