From Our Pastor

We have gathered today to celebrate what we ought to celebrate every day as Christians: Christ is risen!

My favorite Easter story comes from the life of British minister, W. E. Sangster. The following is from Leadership Journal edited by Craig Brian Larson.

Margaret Sangster Phippen wrote that in the mid-1950s her father, British minister W. E. Sangster, began to notice some uneasiness in his throat and a dragging in his leg. When he went to the doctor, he found that he had an incurable disease that caused progressive muscular atrophy. His muscles would gradually waste away, his voice would fail, his throat would soon become unable to swallow.

Sangster threw himself into his work in British home missions, figuring he could still write, and he would have even more time for prayer. "Let me stay in the struggle, Lord," he pleaded. "I don't mind if I can no longer be a general, but give me just a regiment to lead." He wrote articles and books, and helped organize prayer cells throughout England. "I'm only in the kindergarten of suffering," he told people who pitied him.

Gradually Sangster's legs became useless. His voice went completely. But he could still hold a pen, shakily. On Easter morning, just a few weeks before he died, he wrote a letter to his daughter. In it, he said, "It is terrible to wake up on Easter morning and have no voice to shout, 'He is risen!' - but it would be still more terrible to have a voice and not want to shout."

Sermon Notes

Defining Moments: The Defining Moment of all of History Acts 2:22-38

Did Jesus really rise from the grave?

If He did rise from the grave, is this an important event?

If the resurrection did occur and it is an important event, what should be my response?

We pray that today finds you wanting to shout, "He is Risen!"

If you are a guest today, we are glad you are here. We trust that everyone who worships with us today will feel welcome, be led to worship, and be encouraged by the music and preaching. As our guest, we invite you to fill out the guest registration card attached to this bulletin. Fill out that card, bring it to the Information Desk located in the lobby, and there we have a special gift bag for you.

Finally, please be reminded that we do not have any evening activities or services today. Enjoy the afternoon with your friends and families.
